

Grapevine March 2012

Chronicler

Unto the worthy populace of Bordescros and to all of the friends of the Shire, Greetings.

If you have not booked for May Crown please contact our Seneschal ysambart@gmail.com and book now. Come along to the next meeting and find out more information about May Crown.

I am making a separate edition of the Grapevine with photos and stories from Border War, as I did for our Birthday bash in October. This will come out in the next few days.

Along with the Grapevine I am including as an attachment a copy of Lady Alliette Delecourt's Border War collegium, sent to me by Lady Thomasina Coke. I have included it as an attachment because it was a big job to paste and copy, it did not do it easily. A special thanks to both Alliette and Thomasina and if anyone has anything like this please send it to me and I will distribute it to our members.

We look forward to seeing everyone at A&S on Sunday.

Yours in Service,
Arnora BloodAxe

ARTS & SCIENCES OFFICER

Role:

The A&S Officer is tasked with encouraging the arts and sciences in the Barony through classes, workshops, informal gatherings and competitions.

Requires:

Current SCANZ inc membership

Be warranted (2 years, 4 max under exceptional circumstances – this is handled by your Kingdom officer when you take on the office)

Membership in the A&S officers email list, if you have email.

Workload:

Encourage and organize A&S workshops and competitions in the Barony. Get reports from workshops and events in the Barony that hold an A&S competition (for quarterly reporting purposes). Send quarterly reports to Kingdom A&S Minister. Run or organize someone to run the Kingdom Arts and Sciences competitions IF the Kingdom Coronation or Crown Tourney is being held by the Barony AND the Kingdom A&S Minister cannot attend the event.

Reporting Channel:

The A&S Officer is required to report to the Kingdom A&S Minister quarterly. Copies of these reports are sent to the Baronial Seneschal and the Baron & Baroness.

Resources:

The Lochac Arts & Sciences handbook, along with other pertinent materials, can be found at:

<http://www.sca.org.au/artsandsciences/index.html>

There is a Lochac A&S officers email list.

The Kingdom A&S Minister is always there to help.

CONSTABLE

LISTS

Role:

The Lists officer is a deputy to the Knight Marshal and is responsible for coordinating the running of lists at all fighting events (heavy and rapier tournaments, war, also boffer tournaments if so inclined). This does not mean you would always be expected to do the lists yourself, but you would be expected to perform the task or find a deputy to do so, if asked in advance by an event steward or marshal-in-charge.

Because the Lists officer must sight fighter and marshal authorisation cards and handle the associated paperwork, they are also usually asked to also handle SCANZ sign-ins at informal events at public venues (e.g. Musters) where those entering the "controlled space" of the list-field are the only ones required to sign-in.

Requires:

A current SCANZ membership, and a willingness to learn how to handle different tournament formats and style. The Lists officer should be familiar with the relevant rules governing the checking of authorisations, whether established via an authorisation card or a completed still-current copy of an authorisation form.

Workload:

Handling lists, filing reports, handling paperwork as required by the Kingdom Lists Officer and attending Baronial Council meetings (about 2-4 hours a month in total).

Reporting Channel:

The Lists officer is required to report to the Baronial Council monthly, and the Kingdom Lists Officer quarterly, with a copy to the Knight Marshal.

Resources:

SCA Marshallate Web pages:

<http://www.sca.org/officers/marshal/>

Lists reporting page (for reporting tournament results):

<http://www.sca.org.au/lists/report.php3>

Current tournament results:

<http://www.sca.org.au/lists/listkeeperreports.htm>

There should be a Lists folder containing pre-prepared forms for running round robins and other useful paperwork such as sign-in forms, spare authorisation forms etc.

30 Year Anniversary

30 years ago, the SCA Lochac had it's first event in Campsie, Sydney

Those who founded Lochac came from university, fantasy and gaming circles.
They formed a medieval group that after a while decided to join the world wide
SCA.

They had a dream before we even called
it the dream

This is their story

This will not be your usual event. I will be presenting the event as announcing herald. History as theatre and story is what this event is about, reliving the creativity and

eccentricity of our beginnings

There will be snacks but no feast

Come to learn, come to celebrate, come to meet some of our founders and those who were lucky enough to be at that first event (that's where I was).

Do not come if you want an ordinary feast where you sit up the back getting drunk and talking to your friends - your money will be refunded and you will be asked to leave. I am not kidding

Afternoon and early evening of the 16th of June, 2012, at venue to be announced in Sydney.

There will even be a museum display of ancient relics, photos and film

If you wish to help me with theatre or organisation, or if you are an "ancient one", please contact me: llewentheunruly@gmail.com

I hope to have more information about this in the future. Rhonda

Mystery Bag

Tinderbox:

The piece of wood in our mystery box inspired many creative ideas however it was really only fit for one thing – burning! It was infested with ~50 dome-backed spiny ants (Polyrhachis australis) and two different types of borer; the round headed wood borer (coptocercus rubripes) and a very small but much nastier variety that I can't find where I put the name for. And no, we didn't make anything out of our mystery insects! Did kill and preserve the round headed wood borer but seems Ry threw him out.

So insects gone, we moved on to how and why to burn our wood. Our piece of bamboo was also damaged about half way down so could not be used as a full length, so it seemed that burning at least some of this might be a good idea too.

OK, so if we were going to start a fire we would need a flint and steel, and tinder. We had mystery fabric so making charcloth was our next endeavour. One of the mystery fabrics was a synthetic/cotton so was unsuitable for turning into charcloth as it melted. We found that both cotton and linen would turn into charcloth well but cotton performed better when used with flint and steel to start fire. We also did the same treatment to some non woven fibre which we believe to be cotton/kapok. Of the fabrics we tried the soft, open weave cotton provided by the ADF to clean their firearms was by far superior as charcloth. Our first effort was done outside using linen and the BBQ. We did not leave it on the heat long enough and the linen was only scorched rather than charred. Further experiments were done straight over the naked flame of a gas burner of domestic cooktop. This was much more successful.

Our mystery wood and excess bamboo was reduced to kindling and shavings.

A steel was made from an old file, and quartz was used as flint. And one spark will light the best of the charcloth, and voila – Fire!

We also used a piece of the mystery calico to make a waxed drawstring bag to hold our tinder box and keep it dry. It was treated with a mix of beeswax and linseed oil, and hand sewn using double running stitch for extra strength. Beeswax has been used as waterproofing agent since pre history and linseed oil is hydrophobic; it repels water. Linseed oil is made from flax seeds, from the same plant used to make linen.

During medieval era charcloth would have been made over an open flame/fire, and would have predominantly been linen or hemp. This is why we were disappointed when our linen did not work as well as the cotton charcloth.

On the day of the judging have to admit to the success of our fire making equipment as have had to make a new tablecloth for Stormhold because of wayward sparks.

Pirates of the Aegean

Sunday, 11 March 2012

11:30 until 21:30

Being given license by their excellencies of Krae Glas, the Company of the Black Dolphin seeks a crew of cough like-minded cough individuals. So on Sunday the 11th of March, the Company of the Black Dolphin will hold a Rapier Tournament from 1:00pm at Oakleigh Hall, 142-144 Drummond Street, Oakleigh, to test new recruits and elect by skill of the blade the Company's leader for the coming year.

This will be followed by a Feast at the Potted Porpoise Tavern. During the evening there will be a game of Pirates and Pick-Pockets, as two sinister groups attempt to recruit the populace to their nefarious deeds, while knocking each other off. There may also be an outbreak of dancing depending on the presence of musicians and people with feet.

There will be Arts and Sciences Competitions for

A Rapier legal off-hand device (weapon, buckler, or whatever), with bonus points for back-story, novelty. Best sea-worthy garb (piratical or otherwise).

IV Suth

The lands of the southern part of the Kingdom of Lochac (the sinister part thereof) welcome you to attend Suth Moot.

Suth Moot is a low-key, family friendly, relaxed event that we hope will offer those who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity over the long Easter break to do medieval stuff. Knowing, as we do, that other Living History events are also geographically remote, we also invite members of those groups to attend.

With a full children's activities stream, Arts & Sciences Collegia & workshops, Archery, Guild of Defense and Heavy Combat streams all tastes are catered for in a convivial and comfortable environment offering period camping, modern camping, cabins and day tripping.

Festival <http://festival.lochac.sca.org/>

Please tell everyone ... especially if they haven't booked yet ... and read carefully, in case something applies to you (especially the end):

THE TL;DR VERSION:

Bookings close in 6 days; if you haven't received a booking email from me, you're not booked; read what you are clicking 'ok' to when booking; shuttle bus bookings need to be made on the equipment form; remember to pay; and make sure your camp site details are accurate.

IN DETAIL:

As was previously announced, bookings to attend Rowany Festival are being accepted, at the pre-March 1 rate, up to and including midnight on the evening of Thursday, 8 March 2012 (AEDST). This means you now have six days to get that booking in if you have not done so.

To make sure that everyone is booked: as of 8PM on 2 MARCH 2012, I have processed and confirmed every booking I have received. If you believe you sent a booking before this time, and have not had a reply from me, then you ARE NOT BOOKED because I did not receive your form.

The MOST COMMON booking error, is when people click 'Submit' and select 'Send by Internet Mail'. The instructions state that you then need to save and MANUALLY EMAIL the file to rowanybookings@gmail.com - Acrobat will not have done it for you!

Please also save, close and then check the file before emailing. I have received more than a few blank bookings.

IF YOU WISH TO BOOK THE SHUTTLE BUS, you need to complete the equipment booking form (which includes booking the shuttle bus). The check box on the attendance form was to indicate if the shuttle service was needed, and did not constitute a booking. Please also consult the trip planner at <http://www.cityrail.info/> for times you will want to be collected.

IF YOU BOOKED BEFORE 17 FEBRUARY and have not yet fully paid, your booking is at risk of cancellation - contact me IMMEDIATELY to make arrangements to avoid this. Do not be the person who arrives at Festival and is surprised to find they have to pay the gate price because they forgot to pay within the 14 days.

EQUIPMENT BOOKINGS need to be paid within seven (7) days of receiving the confirmation email from me. All equipment bookings must have an ATTENDANCE BOOKING reference (or be received with a booking). Equipment will not be hired for people who are not booked to attend the event (they don't have a camp site without booking).

--- MOST IMPORTANTLY --- MOST IMPORTANTLY --- MOST IMPORTANTLY --- If you did not provide a camp site with your booking, if the camp site you provided is no longer correct, or if you were unsure of your camp site - please EMAIL ME before BOOKINGS CLOSE. After bookings close, the stewards start assigning camp site space.

At this time, 49 people (10% of bookings) will be assigned to the 'Unassigned' space with another 20 people at risk (because their 'camp site' is only 1 or 2 people in size). Make sure the people you wish to camp with BOOK, and make sure you have the right camp site recorded with me.

If you have any questions, please free free to contact me at rowanybookings@gmail.com - just remember, time is running out.

In service,

Sorle Maknicoll
