

BORDESCROS BROADSHEET BORDERLINE

NOT THE END OF GRAPEVINE

The Grapevine is still with us – but – it takes a lot of effort to create a 16 page newsletter, so the Grapevine will be coming out on a quarterly basis and for the intervening months we will have a simple broadsheet with important news that cannot wait for the Grapevine.

Early newspapers were usually printed as a broadsheet and as much news as possible was crammed into as small a space as possible, so this style of newsletter is closer to the period style than our usual more attractive modern style Grapevine.

I will be using a small font so more can be fitted on the page, and suggest that you 'blow up' the page to a size comfortable for you to read the newsletter.

This is a trial only, as was discussed at our last business meeting. Please feel free to comment on whether you like this format or not on our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/bordescros.sca?ref=ts&fref=ts>

AZINCOURT
For 600 years the name has resonated with all who love bravery and the idea of a small army conquering against the odds.

Re-create that feeling this February at BORDER WAR February 20-22 AS49 (2015)

Throw your Warband once more into the Breach Bring your Supporters and your Household to fight for England or for France.

War scenarios include:
The Siege of Harfleur; Forging the Somme; Port of Calais; field and bridge battles and, of course, Agincourt itself

The theme carries through to both Arts & Sciences and the 'Mouth from the South' Bardic Challenge If you have a skill or interest in any area based around the early 1400s would you be willing to share it, offering a collegium over the weekend?

Please indicate your interest on the booking sheet. There will be a series of Rapier collegia

Find out what Azincourt has to do with the game of Tennis!

There will be games... Plus the traditional water battle
